

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL—THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1859.

Daily Appeal.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The following is the New Orleans Picayune's list of the names of those who have come up—the names of those who, under the circumstances, are the most prominent in the operatic and dramatic world, to whom we subscribe. It is a list of names, a reference to the brilliant Amphitheatre, during the week past, of course, have been omitted, as they were not given in a convenient way. Ere long, our weekly issues of matter and name, matters of interest.

Elsewhere, things have been going on, since we last left New York has been reaping a success, and the city is still staving for their southern and western homes, and to these Meets, notwithstanding a few weeks of musical farce at the Academy, Court, and Casino, have wound up the fine season, have gone to the Rosedome a great deal, etc., etc.

The New York Herald in an article above referred to says, "an excitement, tells us that this movement has no chance of success, and public sources are not likely to give it any support whatever."

The quarrel of Truffi and Bendelli with their manager, the personal history of the artist, and the like, are all the talk of the town.

The Great "Wallace" or Violin Piano!

Miscellaneous.

BELLEVUE Gardens and Nursery.

The proprietors of these Gardens offer to the public a

FRUIT, Flowers,

Evergreens, Creepers, Greenhouse Plants, and Hardy Plants, Pines, Firs, Cypress, Magnolia, Azaleas, Camellias, Peacock, Apple, Nasturtium, Ageratum, Chrysanthemums, Pansies, Foxgloves, Pinks, Petunias, Spanish Chestnut, Almonds, Fig-trees, and other Exotic Plants, also a variety of Magnolias, of different kinds and sizes. Fine Vegetated Box, Hemlock and Weeping Spruce.

Cut Flowers

Published at all seasons of the year. A cluster of flowers, where the price of which will be given, or satisfactory references made, may apply.

WEBS, and other articles made by hand.

Extensive Stock

of

STAPLE and FANCY

DRY GOODS,

HATS,

BOOTS & SHOES,

LOOKING-GLASS STORE, ETC.

FREEMAN & CO.,

H. F. FREEMAN, Manufacturer, Spec.

H. F. FREEMAN, Manufacturer, Spec.